AN ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY OF THE
UNITED STATES MARINES IN THE FIRST WORLD WAR

Compiled by

Jack B. Hilliard

Introduction

The list which follows comprises unclassified publications dealing in whole or significant part with Marine Corps operations and related matters in the First World War. For contextual reference a number of general works have been included as well.

This bibliography cannot pretend to completeness in that time has not been available to the compiler for systematic perusal of non-Marine Corps periodicals other than the U. S. Naval Institute Proceedings. Thus, a considerable literature bearing on Marines in World War I remains to be put under bibliographical control. It is hoped that future editions of this list will bring this material into better research accessibility.

In order that the list have the widest possible value to the largest number of researchers and writers, criteria for selection of items to be listed have been broad. Inclusion of any given title does not, therefore, necessarily constitute Marine Corps acceptance or endorsement of an author's views, conclusions, or, indeed, complete historical accuracy. By the same token, the annotation supplied is in the nature of description of the content of books and articles rather than a critical evaluation.

The annotation "notes" indicates that a publication is documented as to research sources; "bibliog." indicates that a bibliography of research materials is appended. The inclusion of illustrations and portraits is indicated by "illus." and "ports."
